Important Notes

- We have NOT considered domain and hosting services in the above packages. It must be provided by the client.
- We have NOT considered logo designing in the above packages. If the client requires us to design the logo then it would be an extra cost.
- We will NOT be writing any content for the websites. If the client requires us to write the content then it would be an extra cost.
- We will be using royalty free stock images for the websites. For any paid images, the client has to purchase the license for that.
- We will be developing the websites only in one language i.e. English. For multi-language it would be an extra cost.
- We have not considered any third-party integrations as part of the above packages. It would be an extra cost depending upon the functionality.
- The timeline mentioned in the packages are tentative. If there is a delay from the client side in providing the feedback's/input's then timeline would extend.
- We will be allocating a dedicated project manager for your website projects to ensure proper and timely communication flow.
